5 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
6 AT SEATTLE

7 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

8 Plaintiff,

9 v.

10 MICHAEL J. FJERSTAD,

11 Defendant.
12

Case No. CR07-277RSM

ORDER

13
14 THIS MATTER comes before the Court on the defendant's motion for early termination
15 of supervised release. (Dkt. 215).

16 Having reviewed the entirety of the record and the pleadings of counsel, the Court finds
17 that termination of supervised release is not appropriate at this time. The defendant has served
18 32 months of the 60 months of supervised release imposed by this Court. The Court finds the 19 defendant would benefit from continued monitoring to assure he has the tools, support and 20 accountability to maintain law abiding behavior, and such monitoring would further serve to 21 protect the public.

ORDER

1           THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the defendant's motion for early
2 termination of supervised release is denied, and the defendant may next reapply for early
3 termination after serving 48 months of supervision.
